U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey;
Case No. 1:19-md-02875-RBK-JS

Dear Judge Bumb:

We write on behalf of Defendant Rite Aid Corporation (“Rite Aid”) regarding the Notice of Permanent Injunction and Discharge filed on September 30, 2024 (ECF No. 2871) and its request that the Court administratively terminate the above-captioned action as to Rite Aid, pursuant to the bankruptcy discharge and injunction referenced therein. See ECF Nos. 2871 (Notice of Permanent Injunction and Discharge), 2871-2 (Confirmation Order and Plan), 2871-3 (Notice of Entry of Order and Effective Date); see also ECF No. 2514 (Suggestion of Bankruptcy and Notice of Automatic Stay of Proceedings).

For the Court’s consideration, enclosed with this letter is a proposed order reflecting the requested administrative termination as to Rite Aid.¹ We are available to answer any questions or provide any additional information to the Court regarding the order.

Respectfully submitted,

Enclosure

Exhibit A – Proposed Order

¹ Exhibit A to the Proposed Order, which reflects the dockets to be administratively terminated, contains additional dockets not reflected in Exhibit A to Rite Aid’s Notice of Permanent Injunction and Discharge filed on September 30, 2024 (ECF No. 2871-1), such as cases that have subsequently amended their complaints to name Rite Aid. Rite Aid has conferred with Plaintiffs about these changes, and Plaintiffs do not oppose them.
